

A photograph of a woman with short, curly hair and glasses, wearing a dark patterned top, playing an acoustic guitar on a stage. She is looking down at the instrument. A microphone is positioned in front of her. A white thought bubble with a tail of four dots is superimposed over the image, containing text. The background is dark.

Let's see.... is it A/B, or B/A, but if B is the 2 of A, do I call it 2 or add 9, or is it something else entirely because of that C in there?????? Shoot, it just looks so awfully impressive...
